1. Revocation of Authorization for Provider Organization Access. I previously authorized the release of my health information to Provider Organization listed below through currentcare by signing an Enrollment and Authorization Form. I have changed my mind and would like to revoke (cancel) my authorization for Provider Organization listed below to access my health information at this time. By signing this Revocation of Authorization: Provider or Provider Organization Access Form, I am hereby cancelling my authorization for any of my health information to be released, accessed or shared through currentcare, except in an emergency or unanticipated health event to Provider Organization listed below. However, any and all other Provider Organizations to whom I have authorized to access my health information may continue to access such information.

2. Effective Date of Revocation. This revocation of my authorization for Provider Organization listed below to access my health information will become effective when it is received by currentcare, and recorded in the currentcare health information exchange system. This revocation of my authorization will not affect previous disclosures or access to my health information while my authorization was in effect.
